

What good things does God do in Communion?

Jesus tells us what Communion does when he says: "This is given and poured out for you, to forgive the bad things you have done." These words tell us that we are forgiven, and that God has saved us and has given us new life. After all, God's forgiveness is the reason we are saved.

