

The Fourth Commandment:
“Pay attention to your dad and mom.”

What does this mean?

We should respect and love God, so that we listen to our parents and other people in charge, and do not make them angry. Instead, we should love and serve them, by doing what they say and treating them with respect.

